

2022–23 Dependent Student Verification Worksheet

Your 2022–23 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. Federal regulation requires confirmation of the information you reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, we will compare your FAFSA with the information on this worksheet and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You must complete and sign this worksheet, attach any required documents, and fax or mail them to the Office of Undergraduate Financial Aid. You may be asked to provide additional information. If you have questions about verification, contact our office so your financial aid will not be delayed.

To avoid processing delays, COMPLETE THE FAMILY GRID IN FULL

List all members living in your household. Include:

- Yourself
- Your parent(s), including a stepparent if the stepparent lives in your household
- Your parent(s)' other children if your parent(s) will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2022, through June 30, 2023, or if the other children would be required to provide parental information if they were completing a FAFSA for 2022–23. Include children who meet either of these standards, even if the children do not live with your parent(s).
- Other people if they now live with your parent(s) and your parent(s) provide more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2023.
- If applicable, include the college or university name for any household member, excluding parents, who will be enrolled at least half time in a degree, diploma or certificate program at an eligible postsecondary educational institution any time between July 1, 2022, through June 30, 2023.
