

Quinnipiac Classic President's Cup golf tourney a success

More than 25 members of the Connecticut PGA competed for a purse of $10,350 at the Quinnipiac Classic President's Cup Pro-Am Golf tournament June 12 at the New Haven Country Club.

Each PGA member played on a team with three other players who were Quinnipiac corporate partners.

Golfers enjoyed a day on the links and met former Boston Bruins hockey player John "Pie" McKenzie, former Boston Red Sox players Bob Montgomery, parent of Lauren '04, Bob Stanley, Luis Tiant and Dick McAullife.

Tony Kelley, head golf pro at Wyckoff Country Club, scored a 65 and was awarded the President's Cup trophy and $2,000.

The Low Gross Team Champions were:

- Kevin Giancola, golf pro at Golf Quest in Canton, Conn.
- Brad Dimeo of Dimeo Construction
- Norm Goldman
- Bob Montgomery

The Low Net Team Champions were:

- Tom DelRosso, assistant golf pro at Prospect Golf Range
- Bill Mecca
- Keith Woodward '88/'92
- Eric Kruse of Pegasus Group

The event was presented by TD Banknorth.

Vice President for Development and Alumni Affairs Donald Weinbach, Boston Bruins hockey player John "Pie" McKenzie, former Boston Red Sox players Bob Stanley, Luis Tiant and Bob Montgomery, and WQUN General Manager Ray Andrewsen.

Quinnipiac trustee Dennis Flanagan '72, former Red Sox player Dick McAullife, golf pro Tim Gavronski, and Women's Hockey Coach Michael Barrett '85.

Low Gross Team Champions Kevin Giancola, golf pro at Golf Quest in Canton; former Red Sox player Bob Montgomery; Norm Goldman; and Brad Dimeo of Dimeo Construction.

Sean McGrath '91 of Assa Abloy, John Bergstrom, Mike McGorty and golf pro John Paesani.

Joe Calabrese, golf pro Pat Aldrich of the Sharon Country Club, Ken Russo and Tony Mancini of Konover Construction Corporation.

Tom Hantke, executive director of the Connecticut PGA; John Patrick, president of TD Banknorth Connecticut; Tony Kelley, head golf pro at Wyckoff Country Club; Quinnipiac President John L. Lahey; and Bill Shaw, New Haven Country Club head golf pro.

Low Net Team Champions Keith Woodward '88/'92, associate director of facilities; Eric Kruse of Pegasus Group; Tom DelRosso, assistant golf pro at Prospect Golf Range; Bill Mecca, senior associate director of athletics; and Lahey.